Futsal – what is it?

According to FIFA Futsal is worldwide the fastest growing indoor sports.

Many countries in Europe, South America and Asia have professional Futsal-leagues that enthusiasm a growing number of spectators. 48 of the 54 member countries of UEFA have national Futsal teams and meanwhile European- and World-Championships are organized regularly.

The fast-paced game and the many scores make Futsal particularly attractive for players and spectators. Futsal promotes skills that are crucial for the modern interpretation of football: direct passing, outstanding ball control and fast switching between attack and defense are strongly anchored in Futsal.
